

TUESDAY, JULY 3, 1744.

Monday, June 9.

THE Marriage of his Imperial Highness with the Princess of Anhalt Zerbst, is fix'd to the beginning of the Month of August. Lord Tyravley having received some Dispatches of great Consequence from his Court, had Yesterday an Audience of her Imperial Majesty; since which, it is reported, that the Veldt Marshal Lacy will speedily set out for Livonia, in order, as is supposed, to give the necessary Directions for the March of the Auxiliaries granted by the Casars to his Britannick Majesty. According to our last Advices from Persia, a very rich Caravan set out from Ispahan for this Capital in the Beginning of the Month of May; and we are also assured, that Thasem Kouli Khan is in the best Disposition possible, with regard to this Empire; and has absolutely declared, that he will never suffer, for the future, any Part of the Commodities or Manufactures of his Dominions, to be transported thro' Turkey into Europe.

Monday, June 17. When the Primate had Audience of his Majesty on the 5th of this Month, his Eminence received, before he entered the Anti-Chamber, by some Officers of the Crown. In the Anti-Chamber he met the Grand Marshal of the Crown, who conducted him to the Audience; from which he was likewise conducted with the same Ceremony. His Majesty has declared, that during the Time he remains here, he proposes to have an Assembly twice a Week, viz. Tuesdays and Thursdays; and the great Officers of the Crown are to have Assemblies in their Lodgings every Day in the Week. The Disputes among the Noble Families in this Kingdom, which gave us so many Apprehensions, are all now either accommodated, or in a Train of Accommodation. The King dines every Day in publick; and all the Nobility, in their Turcs, are admitted to the Royal Table.

Extrait of a Letter from Nice, dated June 16, 1744.

'We have been altogether inactive here for a Month past, which is supposed to be owing to some Disputes about the Projects of our Generals; the Marquis de las Minas being extremely tenacious of his Opinions. We are this Morning eas'd of our Doubts, and the Marquis has the Mortification to find, that his precipitate March to Oniglia is disapproved, even by his own Court; the Plan of the Prince of Conti being as readily accepted at Madrid, as it was universally admired at Versailles. It is apparent to both Courts, that the Operations on that Side are absolutely impracticable; and Orders are sent to abandon Oniglia, repass the Varre, and pursue the War, by an Irruption thro' Dauphiny, into Piedmont. The Reason of this sudden Change in the Councils of the Court of Madrid, arises from the present Situation of the British Fleet; which renders it quite impracticable for the French to sail, or for the Spanish Squadron to enter the Port of Toulon with Safety. It is not to be conceived how much the Soldiers are disgraced with this apparent Confusion in our Councils, and being obliged to undertake the most desperate Services, such as the attacking Montalban and Villa Franca, to no manner of Purpose. The Officers, on the other Hand, are distressed to the last Degree; their Appointments are by no means sufficient to answer their Expenses; and they are, at the same time, so ill paid, that it is with the utmost Difficulty they subsist.'

AMERICA.

Idem, April 30. On Friday last his Excellency was pleas'd to send the following Message to the House of Representatives; viz.

Continues of the House of Representatives.

'As this Assembly is upon the Point of being dissolved, and the next Assembly will not meet before the 30th Day of May, I think it necessary for the Safety of the Province, that you should, before you rise, pass such a Vote, as may enable me (in case Advice of a Rupture with France should arrive here) to act in such manner upon any unforeseen, sudden Emergency, which may happen before the Meeting of the next General Court, as the necessary Defence and Protection of his Majesty's Subjects in this Province, against an Enemy, may require; which I accordingly desire you would do.'

Council Chamber,
April 7, 1744.

W. SHIRLEY.

In the House of Representatives, April 27, 1744.

Read and Voted, That Mr. Speaker, Mr. Hutchinson, Col. Cotton, Dr. Hale, Mr. Livetmore, Mr. Royal, and Maj. Jones, be a Committee to take this Message under Consideration, and report what they judge proper for the House to do thereon. The Committee to sit to-morrow.

The Committee appointed upon this Affair, reported according to Order.

Read and accepted, and thereupon voted, That the following Message be sent up to his Excellency the Governor; viz.

May it please your Excellency.

THIS House have duly considered your Message of this Day, and beg Leave, in Answer thereto, to say,

That it is with Gratitude they observe your Excellency's Care and Concern for the Protection and Defence of his Majesty's good People of this Province; and that in case of a Rupture with France.

And your Excellency having good Intelligence of any Attempt, by our Enemies, form'd against us either by Sea or Land; your Excellency should order Forces to the Inland Frontiers, or take further Measures for our Protection and Defence on the Sea Coast; we apprehend, that your Excellency may safely depend, that full Provision will be made in the next Supply for the Payment of all such Charges as may be advic'd to by his Majesty's Council, and arise on that Account: But should there be a Power invested in any other than the General Court, to infer upon the Province a large Expence, it might be a Proceeding dangerous to us, altho' we do not imagine any immediate Damage would accrue to the Province by such a Proceeding at this Time.

Last Saturday his Excellency, our Governor, was pleas'd to dissolve the Great and General Court, or Assembly, of this Province.

IRELAND.

Dublin, June 16. Yesterday the Regiment of Horse, and three of Foot Militia, of this City, marched to St. Stephen's Green, where they were all drawn up in Order, and reviewed by their Excellencies the Lords Justices of this Kingdom; at which was present several of our Nobility and Gentry, who all expressed their Lik'g at the Appearance of so many of his Majesty's brave, loyal, and dutiful Subjects; who were more numerous than ever was seen before upon the like Occasion. The Regiment of Horse, commanded by Colonel Macarrel, had Cloathing and Furniture in uniform Likeness; which made the genteel Show. The Right Honourable Lord Mayor's Regiment of Foot, made a most noble Appearance, there being many People of large Fortunes, who walked as private Men, and at their own Expence, had very genteel uniform Cloathing; as had likewise the Citizens, who formed the Corps of Sir James Somerville's and Colonel Pearson's Regiments. The whole Appearance was grander, the Regiments more complete and full, genteler clothed, and better disciplined, than ever known. The Sight was extremely grand, and pleasing to all Protestants; and no other Militia in the World could vie with them for the above Particulars, as well as for their Loyalty and Affection to his Majesty's Person and Government. They marched thro' the City to their several Parades, where they drew up, and were dismissed; after which, they marched Home in the greatest Order and Decency. Sir Samuel Cooke, Bart. Colonel Joshua Paul (formerly a Colonel in his Majesty's Guards) and Alderman How, walked in Col. Pearson's Company, as private Men.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Bristol, June 30. Last Tuesday the Mediterranean, Capt. Scott, a Letter of Marque Ship, of this Port, who lately sail'd hence, bound for Newfoundland, on the Trading Account, brought into Kingroad a French Ship, called the Catherine, de Mer, Master, bound from St. Domingo in Higspinto's to Nantes, which he took in Lat. 48, Long. 15, off Cape Clear, carrying 10 Guns and 20 Men; her Lading upwards of 400 Hogheads of coarse and fine Sugars, 20 Quarters of Coffee, three Hogheads of Indigo, 100 Hides, some Thousands of Pistres in Money, and other Goods, to the Value of about 9000l. Sterling. They had a young Lady Passenger on board; and the French Captain avers, that there were above 300 Merchants in America that new not of the War no more than himself; so that the English Cruizers are like to come in for pretty Pickings among them.

HOME PORTS.

Dublin, June 16. Sail'd the Unity, Lynd, for St. Ubes and the Ruth, Barret, for Madeira and Virginia.

Plymouth, June 19. Just now came in the Hanover Packet from Lisbon, being chased by a Privateer off the Deadman's.

Dartmouth, June 20. Wind W. This Day arriv'd the Prosperous Estac, of and from Virginia for London; which had been taken by a French Privateer belonging to Bayonne the 21st Instant, and retaken the 24th by Capt. George Legrose, of the Dartmouth Galley. The Captain of her, whose Name is John Emmett, with some Passengers, are all carried away by the French Privateer. The John and Mary Snow, lately taken by Capt. Legrose, and sent into Falmouth, is just now safely arriv'd here.

Pool, June 20. Wind S. W. Sail'd the Greyhound, Pearce, for Tinsmouth; the Freeclove, Masterman, for Lynn, the Two Brothers, Sparrow, and the John and Elizabeth, Taylor, for London.

Cowes, June 30. The 29th came in the Griffin, Haliburton, from Antigua; the Snapper, Gray, the Prize Frigate, Towers, the Parnassus, Johnson, with three others, which sail'd thro' our Road without stopping, and sail'd the next Day for Spithead; all from Jamaica, but last from Plymouth. The Grand Duke, Major, and the Tuscany, Nichols, two Privateers, from London for Newfoundland, were spoke with by one of the above Ships off the Land's End, all well aboard. On the 29th came in the Anne, Reddatt, from London for Plymouth.

Southampton, June 30. Wind S. W. Since my last arriv'd the William and Mary, Soebay, from Guernsey for London; the Goodlove, Grunt, from ditto, for Rotterdam; and the Mary, Clare, from ditto for ditto; which Vessels all came last from Spithead. Sail'd the Montague, Reivenau, for Guernsey.

Dover, June 30. Wind W. S. W. and blows hard. This Morning pass'd by this Road the Salamander Privateer, from a Cruise, having lost her Foremast, Bow-sprit, and Main-Topmast in a Squall of Wind Yesterday, off the Isle of Wight. She has sent in here a Sloop call'd the Falcon, of which one King, of Portsmouth, was Master, who was taken by a small French Privateer. The Salamander gave Chase to them near Guernsey; upon which the Frenchman seeing he could not save the Sloop, took every body out of her, and made his Escape, leaving the above Sloop adrift. Since my last came in the Speedwell, Cord, for Rye; the Isaac and Elizabeth, Matthews, and the Hope, Tarnel, for Portsmouth; and the Susanna, Guelt, for Plymouth, all for London; the Eliza, Kerton, the Endeavour, Lovelich, the Christopher, Stevenson, and the Friendship, Wright, all from Sunderland. Sail'd the Endraught, Brobie, for Nantes; and all the French Vessels detained here before War was declared.

Deal, July 1. Wind W. by S. Remains in the Downs his Majesty's Ship Success, the Vulture Privateer, and the Betty Tender, with the Outward-bound as per list.

Gravesend, July 1. Pass'd by the Hyam, Wood, from Dunkirk.

Arriv'd at several Ports.

At Newfoundland, the Drake, Archer, from Waterford.

At Antigua, the Industry, Collikon, from Lancaster.

At Cadiz, the Raphael, ———, from Carthagena.

At Bengal, the Lucitania, ———, and the N. S. del Concello, ———, from Lisbon.

At Glasgow, the Kingston, Chesholm, from St. Christopher.

At Liverpool, the John and Margaret, Benton, and the Pearl, Wilcocks, both from Virginia.

At Cowes, the Betsey, Robins, from Montserrat.

LONDON.

The Duke de Chartres, bound from Cadiz to Buenos Ayres, is lost on Rio Grande.

The Molly, Stamper, for Philadelphia for Lisbon, is carried into Cadiz.

Yesterday his Grace the Duke of Grafton set out for his Seat at Easton Hall, in Suffolk.

The Wincheester Privateer, Capt. Gerrald, has taken a Spanish Privateer, and carried her into Lisbon.

The Right Hon. the Lord Chancellor has presented the Rev. Mr. Thomas Morgan to the Vicarage of Llanichyarn, in the County of Montgomery.

His Lordship has likewise presented the Rev. Mr. Thomas Franks to the Vicarage of Shipwith in the County of York.

Yesterday Mrs. Davis, who kept a Shop in the Priv'd Alley by the Smyrna Coffee-House, in Pall Mall, dropt down dead of an Apopleckic Fit.

Last Sunday the Right Hon. Sir Convers D'Arcy, Comptroller of his Majesty's Household, set out for his Seat at Ask near Richmond in Yorkshire.
The same Day a German was committed to Tothill-Fields Bridewell by Justice Fraser, for attempting to break open the Shop of Mr. Hiel, a noted Shoemaker in Pall Mall; he had several Watches of Mr. Finchbeck's wound upon him.

To the Memory of Mr. POPE.

Adieu! and let the Funeral Honours claim
The Verse, which living, I refus'd thy Fame;
This late Return a Pen, to Friendship, pays,
That held thee still above the Reach of Praise;
And drops its mourning Tribute on thy Bier,
Sacred, to all that can of Thee expire.

For down thy laurel'd Page and deathless Line
Still breaths that Soul of Harmony divine,
Still social, lives, Companion of the Mind;
Goes forth, instructs, and speaks to all Mankind;
Still smiles with Innocence, with Honour glows,
Still langu'd with Virtue, wars on all her Foes;
Lifts Worth o'er Want, to Merit weds Acclaim,
And plucks from guilty Pow'r the Mask of Shame.
This is to live, when Time itself is pass'd,
And all who now are living, breathe their last.

Alas! who hopes thy Monument to raise,
Means to himself the Building and the Praise;
Thou like the mighty Monarchs of the Nile,
When living, built thine own eternal Pile,
To stand, where Tempests beat, and Bolts are hurl'd,
The future Gaze and Wonder of the World.

As the last Phoenix, brightest of his Kind,
That on the Sun's proud Temple dy'd inspir'd;
Thy Birth consum'd the Sweets of Nature's Store,
Nor left from whence a future Heir should soar.

It is enough, nor Britain thou repine,
Thou' Genius from its towering Noon decline,
Heav'n gave thee all Ambition's Height cou'd hope,
To Greece a Homer, and to Thee a POPE;
O'er ev'ry Realm distinguish'd by the Birth
Of Two, whose Fires should lighten all the Earth.

What's Time, whose whirling Ages roll away?
Or Life, still less perdurable than they?
Whelm'd in the Gulf of transitory Things
Sinks Pomp, Pow'r, Mitres, Demi-gods and Kings;
O'er drowning Years, far distant Eras close,
Thou' Bards prophetic of long Fame oppose;
Till some immortal Genius steps between,
And fixes where his Century has been;

Thence to each kindred Period gives a Date,
And throws a Glory round some free-born Scite.

Thus, mighty Bard, shall thy triumphant Page
Point out the pristine Annals of our Age;
And hence, succeeding Nations may be taught
When Albion conquer'd, and when Brunswick fought.

And if—for what so stable and sublime
To stand the Shock of all- overturning Time,
If, when the Pow'rs of Nature feel Decay,
And all her high Memorials melt away;

If Briton too her Glories must resign
Lost with her Liberty and Guelphian Line,
Still on late Honour shall her Ills adorn,
And Fame's last Trumpet speak where POPE was born.

Yesterday Catharine Miller was committed to Newgate by Mr. Alderman Bernard, for stealing Goods out of the Shop of Mr. William Spyer, at Aldgate House.

As was likewise Elizabeth Naylor to the same Place, for picking the Pocket of John Day, at the King's Head and Lamb at Queenhithe.

As was also Allen Buckland and Mary Milton, otherwise Davis, to Woodstreet Compter, for further Examination To-morrow, on a strong Suspicion of being concerned in stealing two Silver Watches, several Pieces of Lace, and other Things, value 20*l*. and upwards, out of the House of Mr. Edwards, of Barbican.

Yesterday the Sessions ended at the Old Bailey, when Elizabeth Nicholls was tried for Subornation of Perjury; but there being an Error in the Indictment, she was Acquitted.

John Hammond was tried for publishing a forged Letter, knowing it to be so, and found Guilty. He was fined 6*s*. 8*d*. sentenced to suffer one Month Imprisonment, and to stand in the Pillory at the End of Chancery Lane.

Christian Squire, who was convicted on Saturday last for fraudulently obtaining Letters of Administration to Stephen Newing, late a Merchant on board the Burford Man of War, was fined One Shilling to suffer Six Months Imprisonment, and stand in the Pillory near the Navy Office.

A Little pretty POCKET-BOOK, intended for the Instruction and Amusement of little Master Tommy and pretty Miss Polly; with an agreeable Letter to each from Jack the Giant-Killer; as also a Ball and Pincushion, the Use of which will infallibly make Tommy a good Boy, and Polly a good Girl. To the whole is prefixed, a Lecture on Education, humbly address'd to all Parents, Guardians, Governesses, &c. wherein Rules are laid down for making their Children strong, hardy, healthy, virtuous, wife, and happy.

Children, like tender Oaks, take the Bow,
And as they first are fashion'd, always grow. Dryden.
Just as the Twig is bent the Tree's inclin'd,
Thus Education forms the vulgar Mind. Pope.

Printed for J. Newbery, at the Bible and Crown, near Devereux-Court, without Temple-Bar; and Sold by J. Robinson, in Ludgate-street.

Price of the Book alone 6*d*. with a Ball or Pincushion 8*d*. Of whom may be had just published, Price One Shilling.

A Set of Fifty-six SQUARES,

Newly invented for the Use of Children, by which alone, or with very little Assistance, they may learn to Spell, Read, Write, make Figures, and cast up any common Sum in Arithmetick, before they are old enough to be sent to School; and that by Way of Amusement and Diversion.

Thus Children may be cozen'd into a Knowledge of the Letters, be taught to read, without perceiving it to be any thing but a Sport, and play themselves into that which others are oblig'd for.

Dr. ROBERT EATON'S

BALSAMICK STYPTICK

Truly prepared and sold at the Doctor's own Dispensary, now Mrs. DUTTON's, in Salisbury-Street, Fleet-Street.

THIS Medicine restrains, in a most surprising Manner, all internal as well as external Hemorrhages, i. e. it infallibly and quickly stops all copious Bleedings at the Nose or Gums, spitting or vomiting Blood; also the immoderate Flux of the Hemorrhoids or Hemorrhoids; Moody Urine or Stools, bleeding, &c. large Wounds, &c. (it will appear by the plain Directions given with it) will appear by the Certificates of several eminent Physicians, and in the large Account of this Medicine, written by the Doctor himself, and dedicated to the College of Physicians a little before his Death.

It keeps good for many Years, at Sea or on Shore, in all Climates; therefore must be universally useful.

The Doctor not only obtaining his Majesty's Letters Patent for the sole Vending of this most Excellent Medicine, but also a Clause in a late Act of Parliament, empowering the Medicine from the Inspection of the Council of the College of Physicians, to which all other Medicines are inferior.

N. B. The late Learned Dr. CHEYNE, in a Treatise, entitled The Natural Method of curing the Disorders of the Body, &c. prefers EATON'S STYPTICK to all other Stypticks, and speaks of it as follows:—Every one knows the astonishing Quality of Sweet Blood, and I apprehend it is to this, that EATON'S STYPTICK owes its mild, soothing Efficacy. It is more mild, sedative, and soft, than the mildest Steel Preparation; and more to patch a Hole, or plug up a Rupture, or to stop a Haemorrhage, and to the acid and inflaming Blood of the Plethora. I say, he is confirmed in this by a Physician of great Worth and Candor, who has great Opportunities of seeing in such Cases, by his Practice in Chirurgery. See p. 115.
